Book Cover Designs For Verso Books By &&& Creative

Hand-made to digital book covers designed for Verso Books

A selection of book covers and films showcasing the making of and end product for the Multi Award and Prize Winning publisher Verso Books.

From developing a visual language for a book series to an iconic image for singular books our design work always engages the book narrative, reflecting the companies culture of Verso Books as the largest English-language radical publisher.

“I always look forward to working on a new project with &&&. They are innovative, responsive and sensitive to the narrative of our books.”

Bob Bhamra, Production Director, Verso Books.

"&&&'s cover design for Hollow Land blasted a hole through the book thus leaving its trace on every page."

Eyal Weizman - Director of the Centre for Research Architecture at Goldsmiths College, Architect, Writer and Curator
